

CHRistians In Secular Ministry

CHRISM

“The MSE as Prophet”

Conference and AGM, Friday 12th to Sunday 14th July 2024

Luther King House, Rusholme, Manchester (www.lutherkinghouse.co.uk)

Guest speakers include:

The Rt Revd Julie Conalty, Bishop of Birkenhead

Revd Peter Scott, Samuel Ferguson Professor of Applied Theology and the Director of the Lincoln Theological Institute at the University of Manchester

What does it mean to be a prophet in the workplace, and how do we as MSEs experience this calling? In what ways do we speak truth to power? How do we affirm that which builds up the common good?

Earlier in her career, Julie Conalty ran a homeless shelter, trained as a social worker, and worked for the Youth Justice Board, as an SSM after ordination in 1999.

Peter Scott is an Minister in Secular Employment in the Diocese of Manchester, author of several theology works, a member of the Center of Theological Inquiry (Princeton, USA) and a participant in its international workshop on ‘Religion and the Natural Environment’ (2021-23), Principal Investigator on the AHRC-funded project ‘Religion, Theology and Climate Change’ (2022-25), and chair of the European Forum for the Study of Religion and the Environment (2018-2024).

Cost, from dinner on Friday evening to lunch on Sunday, inclusive:

£250 (members and spouses); £260 (non-members). Day / session rates on request.

Grants may be available from your Church to cover all or part of the cost – apply now to get their support! A limited number of bursaries are available to enable attendance. Please ask CHRISM for details or a receipt. CHRISM can accept payments through GoCardless. If you would like to use this, please email Rob Fox (as below).

Luther King House has been home to various ministry training institutions throughout its life. Most rooms are en suite. It is 2.5 miles south of Manchester City Centre, well served by local buses, and close to the famous ‘Curry Mile’.
