

CHRISM

Where do we see reconciliation and redemption in the workplace?

Conference and AGM, 18th – 20th July 2025. Sarum College, Salisbury, Wilts., SP1 2EE

Led by Canon David Porter

former Director of Reconciliation at Lambeth Palace, and Canon Director for Reconciliation Ministry at Coventry Cathedral

Where when is reconciliation needed? What needs redemption and how? Do differences matter?
How are truth and justice manifest in the workplace?

Led by David, we will explore how to approach healing the hurts of the past, differences, and the issue of truth and justice. David, originally from Belfast, comes with experience in several Christian organisations at senior staff, CEO and board level. He has long experience in public affairs and was a member of the Northern Ireland Civic Forum and Community Relations Council.

In the usual format of a relaxing weekend there will be time for both reflection and catching up with fellow MSEs, and the opportunity to explore the area, or have some free time to yourself. Sarum College is located within the beautiful Cathedral Close in the centre of the mediaeval city. For information on travel and facilities please see www.sarum.ac.uk

The CHRISM AGM will take place at 09.15 on Saturday morning, and in the afternoon there will time for visiting local attractions and points of interest in this historic city.

Cost, from dinner on Friday evening to lunch on Sunday, inclusive:

£220 (members and spouses); £240 (non-members). (£25 discount without en suite).

Grants may be available from your Church to cover all or part of the cost.

A limited number of bursaries are available to enable attendance. Please ask CHRISM for details or a receipt. CHRISM can accept payments through GoCardless or bank transfer.

Please return this slip, or contact as below (before 30th June, 2025).
